CHILDREN HATE CASTOR OIL, UGH!

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" Best for Their Little Stomachs, Liver and Waste-Clogged Bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the physic that mother insisted on—castor oil, colic, cathartic. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With your children, it's different. The day of harsh physic is over. We don't force the liver and 30 feet of bowels now; we coax them. We have no dreaded after-effects. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their little bodies and tender bowels are injured by them.

Castor oil is brutal, poisons, sours the stomach, causes feverishness, half-digestion, sore throat, stomach-ache, diarrhoea, and full of cold; has no effect on the bowels; it coats the bowels and the longer it coats them, the more it clogs them. We have a responsible Syrup of Figs, that doesn't worry because you surely will have a well-smiling child in a few days.

Syrup of Figs, being composed entirely of laxative figs, serves and soothes simply, cannot be harmful. It moves the stomach, makes the liver active and thoroughly cleanses the little one's waste-clogged bowels. In a few hours all sour bile, undigested fermenting food and constipated waste matter gently moves on and out of the system.

Instructions for children, of all ages, are given in plain, plainly printed language.

Get the genuine Syrup of Figs and Little's Kidney Pills, prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. Accept nothing else.

WORKING GIRLS TELL OF THEIR EXPERIENCES LIVING ON $8 A WEEK

More Eight-Dollar-a-Week Letters.

Girls of New England are writing daily to the AMERICAN on the live question: "Can a girl live respectably on eight dollars a week?"

Naturally most of the letters come from working girls who are on small wages. They write directly from their own experience. They tell of the long hours of the day, of the cost of food, of how far a dollar has been spread to supply clothing. Among the latest letters are the following:

The Story of Two Girls.

Editor AMERICAN:
I have continually read the letters concerning the problem of living on $8 a week and nearly every letter speaks of young ladies either getting their breakfast or lunch and doing their own sewing. Now I want to say if a girl works ten hours a day and has to get her breakfast and wash dishes before the day is over and get up and wash clothes and sew when she comes home, where is our "ten-hour day?"

I did this for seven months and if girls could find that they are not really to be paid, I don't even have time to read a paper, and if I went out two nights a week my work piled up so I had to work every Sunday. I could write volumes on this subject, but am thankful that my conscience and I have both escaped it now, as I am married and live in the stage. Yes, the stage! It offers two hundred chances against one to a factory or department store.

Humerville.

Lives On $7.70 a Week.

Editor AMERICAN:

Here is how I have lived for more than two years on less than $8 a week. With a girl almost all have a small suite of two rooms. We furnished them mostly free, by buying at sales. We do our own housekeeping, laundry and mending, and so on. Four girls could do it still better.

Our rent is $20 a year with light. Our rent and kitchen expense last year cost $200 or $250. We had at market. Once a week we get out and see cream and give. We get milk and help from newspapers and magazines.

Our clothing we buy at reduction sales and bargain counters. Mine cost me $50 last year and some of it will wear next year. We take care of our clothes. We also take care of our health and teeth, so we have no doctor's bill.

We took rides on trolleys last summer and took our lunch on. We went to the movies and library, and theatre if we are asked. We have more fun and less worry than many rich have.

Here is our expense for each week:

Food, $1.50
Rent, $2.00
Laundry, .50
Mending, .50
Sewing, .50
Dress, .50
Dress and church, .50
Total, $7.50

Boston.

Always Save a Little.

Editor AMERICAN:
A good room and board can be had for $3.75, and by sharing room with a girl I always get it cheaper. By planning ahead, I could dress and save a little on remainder. Live where you can walk to work.

There are so many ways to be saved at a small expense. Why we girls could have a nice time without spending a cent, and live better.

A dress costing $12 for goods and making was for best a year. Winter had $4.50 or $5; two seasons ago had $3.50, and a plaid dress for spring and fall $1.15. Then get a dress skirt to wear with waste with. There are at least twenty goods on the market at 10 and 12 cents a yard for summer dresses, and with a white muslin for Sunday, "sundress" cost more than $3 for material.

One can always look well providing one keeps them in repair. A working girl must dress plain and becoming, but try to follow the styles.

I earned my living in Massachusetts for six or seven years and am still alive on less than $8. There is no set rule how one can live and make the year best.

Kittery, Me.

The Inexperienced Girl.

Editor AMERICAN:
Can a girl live in a big city on a salary of $8 a week? That question might be answered by every person in New England and on for ever and never the solution that we were at the beginning.

My opinion is it depends entirely upon the girl.

If a girl comes to the city determined to "make good" and is willing to work she will find that she can not only get along on that sum, but she can do it and she can be perfectly happy and contented, providing that she does something every day to keep her name to be good.

For what I think it would cost a girl to live in Boston or any other city.

Room and board at the W. C. A. $4.00
Food at same table or kitchen school. $1.50
Dress, .50
Mending and laundry, .50
Total, $7.50

But just one more thing. There will be an inexperienced country girl who is able to make $8 a week when half the girls in Boston don't get more than $6. It is my wish that it be questioned that is troubling most girls. Where will I get it? Not where will I spend it.

New Haven.

Profits by Spare Time.

Editor AMERICAN:
Here is how I manage to exist on $8 a week.

Room and gas, $1.15
Sewing, .50
Mending, .50
Laundry, .50
Total, $3.65

I work in a retail store, and have a lot of spare time. During my spare time I typewrite letters for a landowner and get all my work free.

BOY'S HAIR FELL OUT IN BUNCHES

Started to Get Sores All Over Head.

Began as Rash. Spread on Face. Had to Tie Hands to Keep from Scratching. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

10 Walnut St., Waterbury, Conn.—"My little boy was about four months old when he started to get sores all over his head. It began as a rash and spread on his face. It was very thick so that I had to tie his hands down to keep him from scratching. He would break out. He would cry and could not sleep. When his hair fell out in bunches. He was a sight to look at."

"I had him treated and used some ointments which did not a bit of good. I thought I would try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and first washed his face with Cuticura Soap, then put the Cuticura Ointment on night and morning. I used them for about two months steadily and all the sores disappeared and he was completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. James F. McCall, Apr. 6, 1912.

A small cake of Cuticura Soap (5c) and box of Cuticura Ointment (25c) are everywhere. When all else has failed, Cuticura is the only remedy. Sample of each mailed free, with 2c. Skin Rash. Address, postpaid, "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

★ Star who shaved and shaven with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

EVERETT POLICE SEEK METER THIEVES

Look out for the gas meter thief. Over thirty gas meters have been stolen in a single section of Everett. The police are tracing the thieves. It is believed that they work from one section to another. The meters offer little resistance, a false key in the handle of these skillful lock-pickers makes it easy for them to secure the contents of a meter.

MANY LETTERS PRAISE CASSIDY PURE FOODWORK

Harry P. Cassidy's support of the bill under the Legislature to force the milk to sell honest cheese, honest butter and honest oleomargarine, has drawn many letters to the BOSTON AMERICAN.

One representative of a retail dealer's association wrote asking Mr. Cassidy to publish the facts in his possession as to food adulteration, upon which he based his statement that many retailers, either intentionally or innocently, are deceiving their customers.

These facts will be published from time to time in the AMERICAN. The work of arranging them in logical form requires time, and it is necessary to have the material more corroborated again and again, so as not to do any man an injustice.

The letter published below, though unsigned, is phrased in no remarkably clear and accurate a fashion that it deserves repetition. It is from Mr. Harry P. Cassidy, Boston, AMERICAN.

Dear Sir:—The writer has noted with deep interest the work you are doing in the cause of pure and honest foods. It is a work that should attract every public-spirited citizen of Massachusetts.

While we have good food laws to protect the average consumer, there are many manufacturers and distributors of inferior goods who are constantly trying to evade the laws and increase their profits by selling adulterated foods and foods made of such low grade materials as to require harmful chemical preservatives.

The writer is not a chemist, but he is a consumer, and he is not willing to be deceived. He is not willing to be deceived by the cheap and inferior goods which are sold under the name of pure and honest foods.

The writer is not a chemist, but he is a consumer, and he is not willing to be deceived. He is not willing to be deceived by the cheap and inferior goods which are sold under the name of pure and honest foods.

RUSSIA AND CHINA CLASH ON MONGOLIA

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 31.—Russia is again manifesting its jealousy of China's opportunity to Mongolia. It is reported today in the Chinese press that the Russian troops are being mobilized to intercept them. Russia has promised military aid to the Mongolians, and already a small force is in the field in Mongolia.

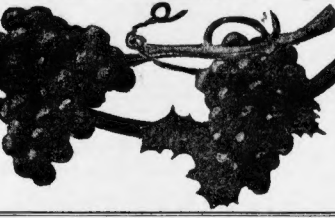

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure

The Only Baking Powder Made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

Safeguards the food against alum

Chemists' tests have shown that a part of the alum from biscuit made with an alum baking powder passes into the stomach, and that digestion is retarded thereby.

Read the label and make sure that your baking powder is not made from alum.

To the Policyholders: THE COMPLETION OF THE FIFTIETH YEAR OF ACTIVE BUSINESS, ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1912, SEEMS TO YOUR DIRECTORS OF SUFFICIENT MOMENT TO WARRANT THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT.

Reserves and Dividends
WITH THE ENDING OF THE YEAR THERE WAS REACHED THE PRACTICAL FULFILLMENT OF A PROGRAM WHICH WAS ENTERED UPON SEVERAL YEARS SINCE, FOR THESE PURPOSES, NAMELY:
TO PROVIDE YEARLY FOR SURPLUS (DIVIDENDS) DISTRIBUTABLE IN THE FOLLOWING YEAR.
TO ESTABLISH ASSET DEPRECIATION FUNDS.
TO ESTABLISH IN THE LEGAL RESERVE, FROM THE RESOURCES OF THE WEEKLY PREMIUM BRANCH, ADDITIONAL RESERVES ON POLICIES OF THAT CLASS FOR EFFECTING THE CESSATION OF PREMIUM PAYMENTS AT AGE SEVENTY-FIVE, AND TO BRING SUCH POLICIES UPON THEIR TRUE MORTALITY TABLE AS NOW AUTHORIZED BY LAW, WHICH MAKES NECESSARY A HIGHER RESERVE THAN THAT HERETOFORE PERMITTED.

THIS COURSE, WHICH IS ESSENTIAL TO YOUR SEVERAL INTERESTS, HAS SO FAR AND SO SUCCESSFULLY PROGRESSED AS HAVE ENABLED YOUR DIRECTORS TO BEGIN PLANS FOR A MATERIAL INCREASE IN THE SCALE OF SURPLUS RETURN (DIVIDENDS) TO POLICYHOLDERS, WHICH WILL STILL FURTHER DECREASE NET INSURANCE COSTS, AND WHICH IT IS EXPECTED WILL BE MADE EFFECTIVE NEXT YEAR.

Operations of the Past Year
Cash in Outstanding Insurance	$48,584,809.00
(or 8 per cent)
Bringing total in force Dec. 31 to $662,054,085.00
Total Paid Policyholders	$10,506,246.73
(Increase 10 per cent)
Legal Reserves Increased	$12,370,913.00
EXPENSE REDUCED
Invested during the year, over $16,000,000.
Average interest rate, 5.55 per cent.
There was no interest in default Dec. 31, on bonds or mortgages, nor was there any property held under foreclosure.
The expense was reduced to a lower point than ever before.
Decrease in expense in 5 years, 4.40 per cent, saving over $3,000,000.00 for the policyholders.

YOUR DIRECTORS REPORT THAT THE PAST YEAR WAS THE MOST SUCCESSFUL IN THE COMPANY'S HISTORY. THAT THE BUSINESS IS PROCEEDING UPON A CONSTANTLY IMPROVING BASIS; THAT THE INVESTMENTS OF THE COMPANY CONTINUE TO BE MADE UPON A HIGH PLANE, BOTH AS TO SECURITY AND EARNING POWER; AND THAT THE CONDITIONS OF FINANCIAL STRENGTH AND EFFICIENCY OF ORGANIZATION ARE A GUARANTY OF THE SAFETY AND CONTINUED ADVANCEMENT OF YOUR INTERESTS IN THE FUTURE.

PROVIDENCE DOCTOR CALLS BOB VEAL NO WORSE THAN LOBSTER

The fight against bob veal is the most earnest of the day. Dr. C. V. Chapin, of Providence, at the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Board of Health Association at the Brunswick, he claimed the impugned meat was "all right." He said that though it caused sickness occasionally, so did water-buries and lobsters.

Dr. C. V. Chapin called attention to the value of veal in the diet of the people. In Providence, he said, 200 babies had been saved in one year by that meat. At a cost of $20 a baby, he thought that very cheap, and urged that such results could be obtained elsewhere in connection with the supervision of the milk supply.

KIDNEY TROUBLE VANISHES

GAINED EIGHTEEN POUNDS
Some time ago I was troubled with what the doctors pronounced to be kidney trouble. I was completely run down and so weak and exhausted that I could not do any work. I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and found that I got relief. I continued the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and today my kidneys are in fine shape and I am enjoying the best of health. I have gained eighteen pounds, and feel as well as ever in my life. You can publish this letter if you wish to.

Very truly yours,
MRS. JOHN S. JONES,
Graville, N. Y.

State of New York, ss.
County of Washington, ss.
I, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the letter of Mrs. John S. Jones, as the same appears before me personally, this 30th day of July, 1910. Mrs. John S. Jones, who subscribes the foregoing statement, and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.
C. E. PARKER, Notary Public.

Letter to Dr. Williams & Co., Boston, Mass., N. Y.
Please send me a bottle of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I will give you a testimonial. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the Boston Daily American. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

MANY MOTHERS ASK FOR BABIES WITHOUT HOMES

As long as ever discussed in this country that the question of the babies left without homes. Mothers all over the country are asking for babies, not just for the sake of the babies, but for the sake of the mothers. The babies are the ones who are the most in need of homes, and the mothers are the ones who are the most in need of babies.

It is a fact that every mother who has a baby, knows that the baby is the most precious thing in the world. And every mother who has a baby, knows that the baby is the most precious thing in the world. And every mother who has a baby, knows that the baby is the most precious thing in the world. And every mother who has a baby, knows that the baby is the most precious thing in the world.

Editor AMERICAN:
I am writing you to tell you that there are a large number of babies who are in need of homes. I am writing you to tell you that there are a large number of babies who are in need of homes. I am writing you to tell you that there are a large number of babies who are in need of homes.

WOMEN APPEAL TO CONGRESS FOR THE BALLOT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Three hundred members of the women's suffrage movement met today in the House of Representatives to demand the passage of the Federal Suffrage Bill.

"If now it will be held to maintain order with many women here," he said. Representative William D. Howard, of New York, declared the authors of the Constitution had been misled to disfranchise women.

Representative Howard of Arizona declared that the women's suffrage bill was the only bill that would give women the right to vote.

95% of Illness Due to One Cause

Physicians agree that 95% of all illnesses are possible only because of accumulated waste in the Colon (Lower Intestine).

In fact, the most eminent of the World's Specialists claim that if the Colon were always kept clean, the average life of humanity would be doubled.

There is now a new and simple method of clearing the Colon of this poisonous waste and keeping it clean, pure and healthy—Of curing Constipation and the depressing bilious attacks which make us dull, blue and inert—without any spirit or ambition.

That method is Internal Bathing with Nature's Cure, warm water, administered by the "J. B. L. Cascade."

Over 200,000 people are now enthusiastically using this modern warm water cure, and physicians are prescribing it everywhere—It is making sick folks well and well folks better, stronger, more ambitious, energetic and confident.

The "J. B. L. Cascade" is now being shown by all our stores in New England, and we will be glad to explain its action and uses to you in detail.

50 AND 82 SUMMER ST. BOSTON, JANUARY 31, 1913.

Let New York's Plight Under the Thumb of Morgan Be a Warning to Massachusetts

This infamous contract could not become valid if the New York Public Utilities Commission refused to sanction it. The New York Public Utilities Commission has full powers, but it lacks an upright majority. We have an example in this case of what we may expect if we allow the New Haven monopoly to get a permanent foothold in this community and expect a Public Utilities Commission to control it.

An Announcement You Will Appreciate
The Sunday AMERICAN'S Great Magazine Has Been Enlarged to 32 Pages

BIGGER than ever, and as ever the best. That sums up the story of the Magazine which will be given away free with the AMERICAN next Sunday. It is enlarged in size to thirty-two pages, which makes for a bigger quantity of readable articles of the usual high quality of the AMERICAN MAGAZINE. Next Sunday's issue is check-a-block full of good things—fiction, humor and special articles of timely interest and by world-famous writers.

"Look before you leap," runs the old saw. So here's your chance to take a look at some of the joys of next Sunday's Magazine. First of all, the story of the life of the daughter of a girl with a glint of gold in her hair and fetching as can be. The cover lifted, the succession of literary fea-on begins. Titles and authors make us sit up and take notice.

First of all there are new chapters by Elinor Glavin's wondrously interesting story, "1905: Gulsenev's Year." Everybody is anxious to read this new installment of the new novel by the author of "Three Teks" and "Why." The mysterious and the marvelous are his specialties.

Isi Chandler tells some "Surprising Discoveries About Tobacco." Next is the literary pageant comes "The Wife-Eye View," by W. H. Francis, a short story of mysterious India, which you will want to read.

The great Rex Beach is next with a novel Beach story, "When the Mail Comes," for his title is interesting to read to the very end.

Here's Olet Burrows with "The Name of Mathusalem," which you will tarry over with pleasure.

Leslie Allen shows his usual delightful humor in "The Lease Breakers."

James Francis Dwyer writes "The Phantom Ship of Dirk Van Tromp," one of the thrilling South Sea Island stories.

You know "Arsene Lupin," of course. Here's the greatest of the novels in which the celebrated character appeared—"The Crystal Stopper," by Maurice Bouchard. Following this, bringing up the rear in the array, comes articles shorter in length but up to the standard.

Altogether they make up the enlarged Sunday AMERICAN Magazine, which furnishes you with an added reading pleasure. Place orders for next Sunday's AMERICAN with your dealer now.

opposite view—but as to sleep the propensities by assuring us that are not too much.

Mr. Edison stoutly combats this, and he backs up his assertion that we sleep about twice too long, by additional examples from his own family, who, it seems, have come around to his opinion, and are now satisfied and thriving on four or five hours' sleep per day.

The Instant That Edison
Awakes He Is ALL
Awake

Of course, no man can set rules on any subject that all others may safely follow. Very much depends upon the makeup of the individual, and it is significant that persons of great mental activity usually sleep less than those whose brains are not so rich, or so well developed. Napoleon and Frederick the Great got along with three or four hours' sleep a day, and Edison, it appears, averages even less. But in all these cases the sleep is as perfect as it is brief. There are no dreams, no restlessness, while it lasts. It is the assurance of absolute rest, probably those mysterious readjustments that go on among the molecules of the brain and the body during sleep are made more rapidly and more thoroughly in profound slumber than when the rest is broken.

It follows that everybody ought to try to acquire the ability to sleep quickly and soundly, the greatest obstacle to a prompt arrival at the deep is the habit of keeping the mind active after the head touches the pillow. Say your prayers before you lie down and not after. Edison avers that he cannot think after he gets in bed. He has tried it out of curiosity, but his brain would work. The moment he lies down he falls asleep.

And then comes the correlative and very important fact, that the instant he is awake he is ALL awake. "My eyes are as light as feathers the moment I open them."

What he gains by that

DO WE SLEEP
TOO MUCH AS
WELL AS EAT
TOO MUCH?

GARRETT P. SERVISS SAYS:

"Thomas A. Edison thinks we do, and the great inventor, who often does not sleep over two hours a day for weeks at a time, has accumulated some exceedingly interesting evidence on the subject."

By GARRETT P. SERVISS

EAT little and sleep little—that is Edison's prescription for the attainment of long life.

He talks about it very entertainingly in HEART'S MAGAZINE for February, giving his reasons and his proofs, derived from the experiences of his own family. It is to be expected, here, but it must be said that a man whose grandfather lived to the age of 104, and then died, not from any disease at all, but simply because he felt that he had had enough of this life, and that "the cells of his body were anxious to get away"; whose father lived and died "the same way"; and who, himself, at the age of 70, had long been "waged a forty-day campaign for the perfection of the phonograph, during which he never slept more than two hours a day" is certainly justified in thinking that he has done a great deal of work making known to the world.

The doctors have long been telling us that we eat too much—there are very few who take the eight hours out of every twenty-four and then think what the world at large would gain if people in general could acquire the same control over sleep! Four hours is half a legal day's work. Supposing those four hours be saved for WORK, as they ought to be, and not for pleasure, the daily product of human energies could be increased 50 per cent!

Perhaps science may some day come to our aid in this matter. It may discover the real mechanism of sleep, and, by aiding nature in her restorative processes, enable us to get good sleep in only a few hours of sleep or less. It would be an immense boon. By constant oiling an engine can be made to run unceasingly without damage to its parts. Sleep seems to be the oil that keeps the body oiling the body, but is it impossible to suppose that the duration of this pause may be so greatly cut down by increasing the efficiency of the molecular oiling that it is the time that might be saved? Anyhow, Edison's molecules appear to have got into a condition of almost perpetual oiling, either through heredity or through the exercise of will.

Takes Resolution and Effort to Acquire This Faculty

You cannot expect to acquire this faculty at once, for no doubt it demands a great deal of effort and resolution at first. But you might make an experiment and cut off a little sleep at a time, remembering always that the most important thing is to learn how to fall asleep the moment you lie down. Don't cultivate sleep; take it only when you absolutely need it. Napoleon could take a nap in the saddle that made him twice as terrible to the enemy the instant he awoke.

THE PARIAH

By MINNA IRVING

HE owned a car of costly make
 With scarlet leather gay,
 And horn that a half a dozen tunes
 Could very sweetly play;
 He had a dark and haughty count
 To drive the big machine,
 Yet he was viewed with scorn by all
 That drove the machine.

The guild of gasolons.

"Now, why," I asked an auto man,
"Do all of you regard
This brother motorist with looks
Disdainful, cold and hard?"
"Oh, it's a year since in a car
That man," he said, "invested,
And he has toured in all the States,
But never been arrested."
